PLAYBACK . . . 2001

"Time Speeds Up, Moments Slip Away,
And The Long-Awaited
Tomorrow Is Suddenly Today"

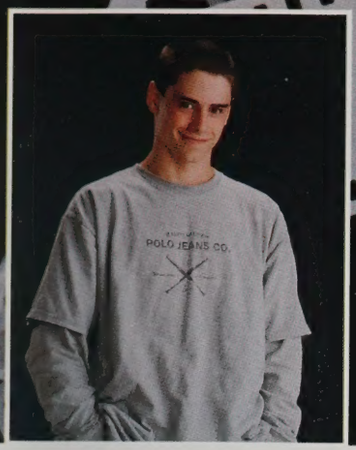

The Class of 2001 . . . The first to graduate in the new millennium. As the largest ever, in 1997, our class made its debut appearance at Agawam High School. The leaders we chose as freshman, Michael Federico, President; Jenna Bodurtha, Vice-President; Lisa Bienia, Secretary; and Lauren Kida, Treasurer, continued to guide us throughout our remaining three years. Sports that year were impressive, as gymnastics led Western Mass. in talent, proving that they were "Brownies with Finesse". Our school underwent major reconstruction, with the addition of the new wing, in preparation for accreditation. We experienced our first pep rally, and cheered our players on as Agawam defeated West Side in the annual Thanksgiving classic.

With sophomore year came many changes. Girls and Boys Cross Country and Volleyball Teams were added to our growing sports roster, and we eagerly rooted for them. The band displayed its talent with their victory at Boston University, and our chorus and drama clubs entertained us with their production of "Oliver". We experienced the trial MCAS tests, and were relieved to not have to deal with them as a graduation requirement. The new surveillance cameras in the building reminded us that our safety is always a concern. We held the first ever "ring breakfast", and realized the potential of our class spirit as we gallantly participated in our first Winter Olympics, and Orange and Brown Day proved that we were "joyous and ever loyal". We topped off our sophomore year with the class trip to Martha's Vineyard.

As juniors our enthusiasm remained strong, and once again, our Brownies were victorious on Thanksgiving Day! The prom that year could not have more completely fulfilled our expectations, as we had "The Time of Our Lives". Sports stirred the entire student body, as the Varsity Cheerleaders competed at Nationals in Orlando, Florida. Our school proved to be doing well academically, and we won four medals in Academic Decathlon, and placed first in the Latin Certamen at UMASS Amherst. We'll always remember the Winter Olympics, and how the tug-of-war rope kept snapping; and we'll keep our fading memories of that Y2K bug-with no bite! We will never forget the fun and excitement that our trip to Boston Harbor provided; yet at the same time it reminded us that in September we would experience our final year at AHS.

Senior year, and we were presented with the problem "so much to do, so little time". We excitedly jumped into our senior activities, planning the Kid Party, and Semi-Formal, and Prom, which was for the first time, going to be held in June. The no hats rule was introduced, and administration began locking all the doors, causing some initial confusion. We enthusiastically participated in the first annual Powder Puff Football Game and Mr. Agawam Pageant. As we look ahead to the future, and our long-awaited Graduation, we reflect on our time at AHS. We will never forget the unconditional support, guidance, and inspiration from our two wonderful class advisors, Mrs. Kathleen Mouneimneh, and Mr. Scott Trahan. As an effective team, they gave us room to grow; as we developed our own creativity, they allowed us to break with tradition. We are a truly unique class, one with style, and of eminence. As a class of tremendous firsts, the Class of 2001, we eagerly await what the future holds! "When we came here we were not leaders, but as we leave, we are ready to lead the way to a better world".

" . . . and by the way, if Barbie's so popular, then why do you have to buy all her friends?" How many times have you heard jokes like these and felt like saying, "Hey Pulaski, don't quit your day job?" Well, it's no surprise to us that this time he didn't get the hint. Sadly for the staff of AHS and unfortunately for those who will never have a chance to know him, a man who is greatly loved and admired has taken his final bow this year.

In the year 1963, this man named David E. Pulaski embarked on a journey that would take him places he could have never imagined. In these past thirty-eight years, he has defined what Sachem and AHS teaching stand for. He has used his brilliant ingenuity to create his own unique teaching style, leaving the lessons he has taught everlasting in the minds of young adults. Smiles still remain on the faces of former students at the thought of his comedic actions due to his eclectic sense of humor. For anyone who has ever walked by Mr. Pulaski's room, they know this is true for there's never a dull moment. If it's not silly string, flying frogs, blinking lights or the frequent bursts of laughter echoing down the halls, there is always something distinctive happening in room 74.

Whether it's excitement in the classroom that makes his hair stand on end, or electricity in the air during a lightening storm, he is always willing and ready to go the extra mile. With camera in hand, there's never a time or place our very own Mr. P is not prepared to shoot any shot. Sometimes for the unfortunate, the not-so-flattering photos will be displayed for all to see in the famous "picture of the day". These are the memories that make Mr. Pulaski a "superstar" in our hearts.

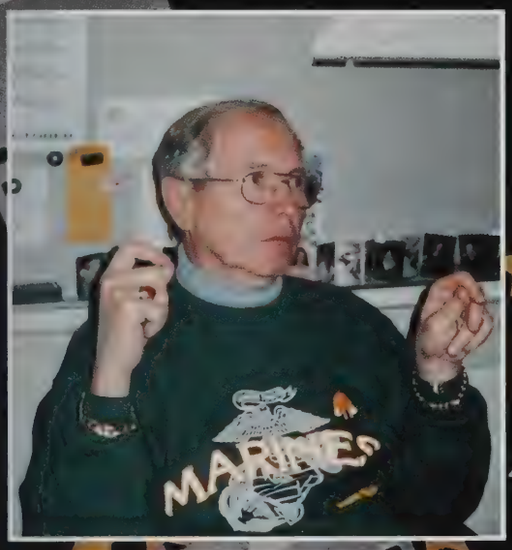

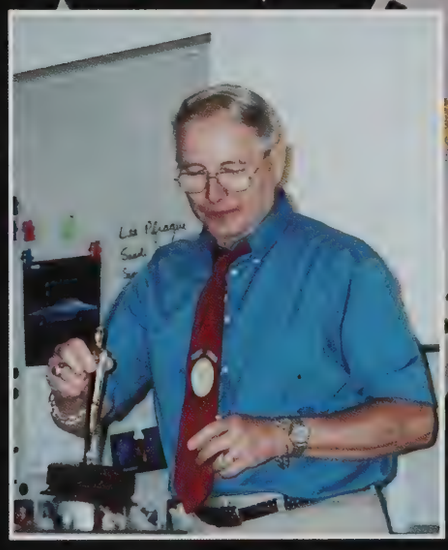

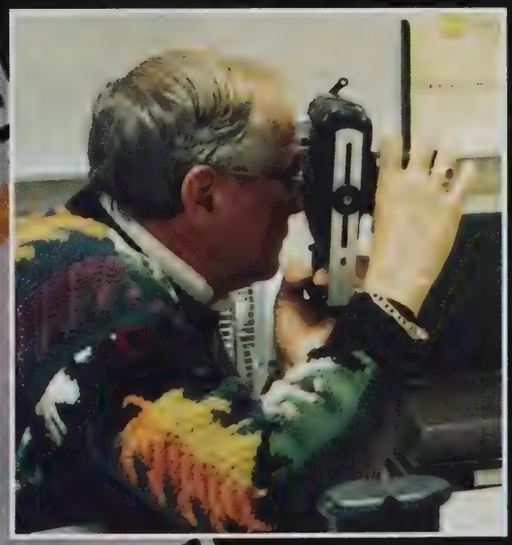

Mr. Pulaski,

On behalf of the students whose lives you've touched, we would like to present you with a Lifetime Achievement Award for your dedication and talent in the works in which you have committed countless hours over the course of your career here at AHS. We love you with all our hearts and thank you for showing us that life is completely unpredictable. There are risks we sometimes have to take and not knowing what will happen in the end is what makes life worth living. Good Luck.

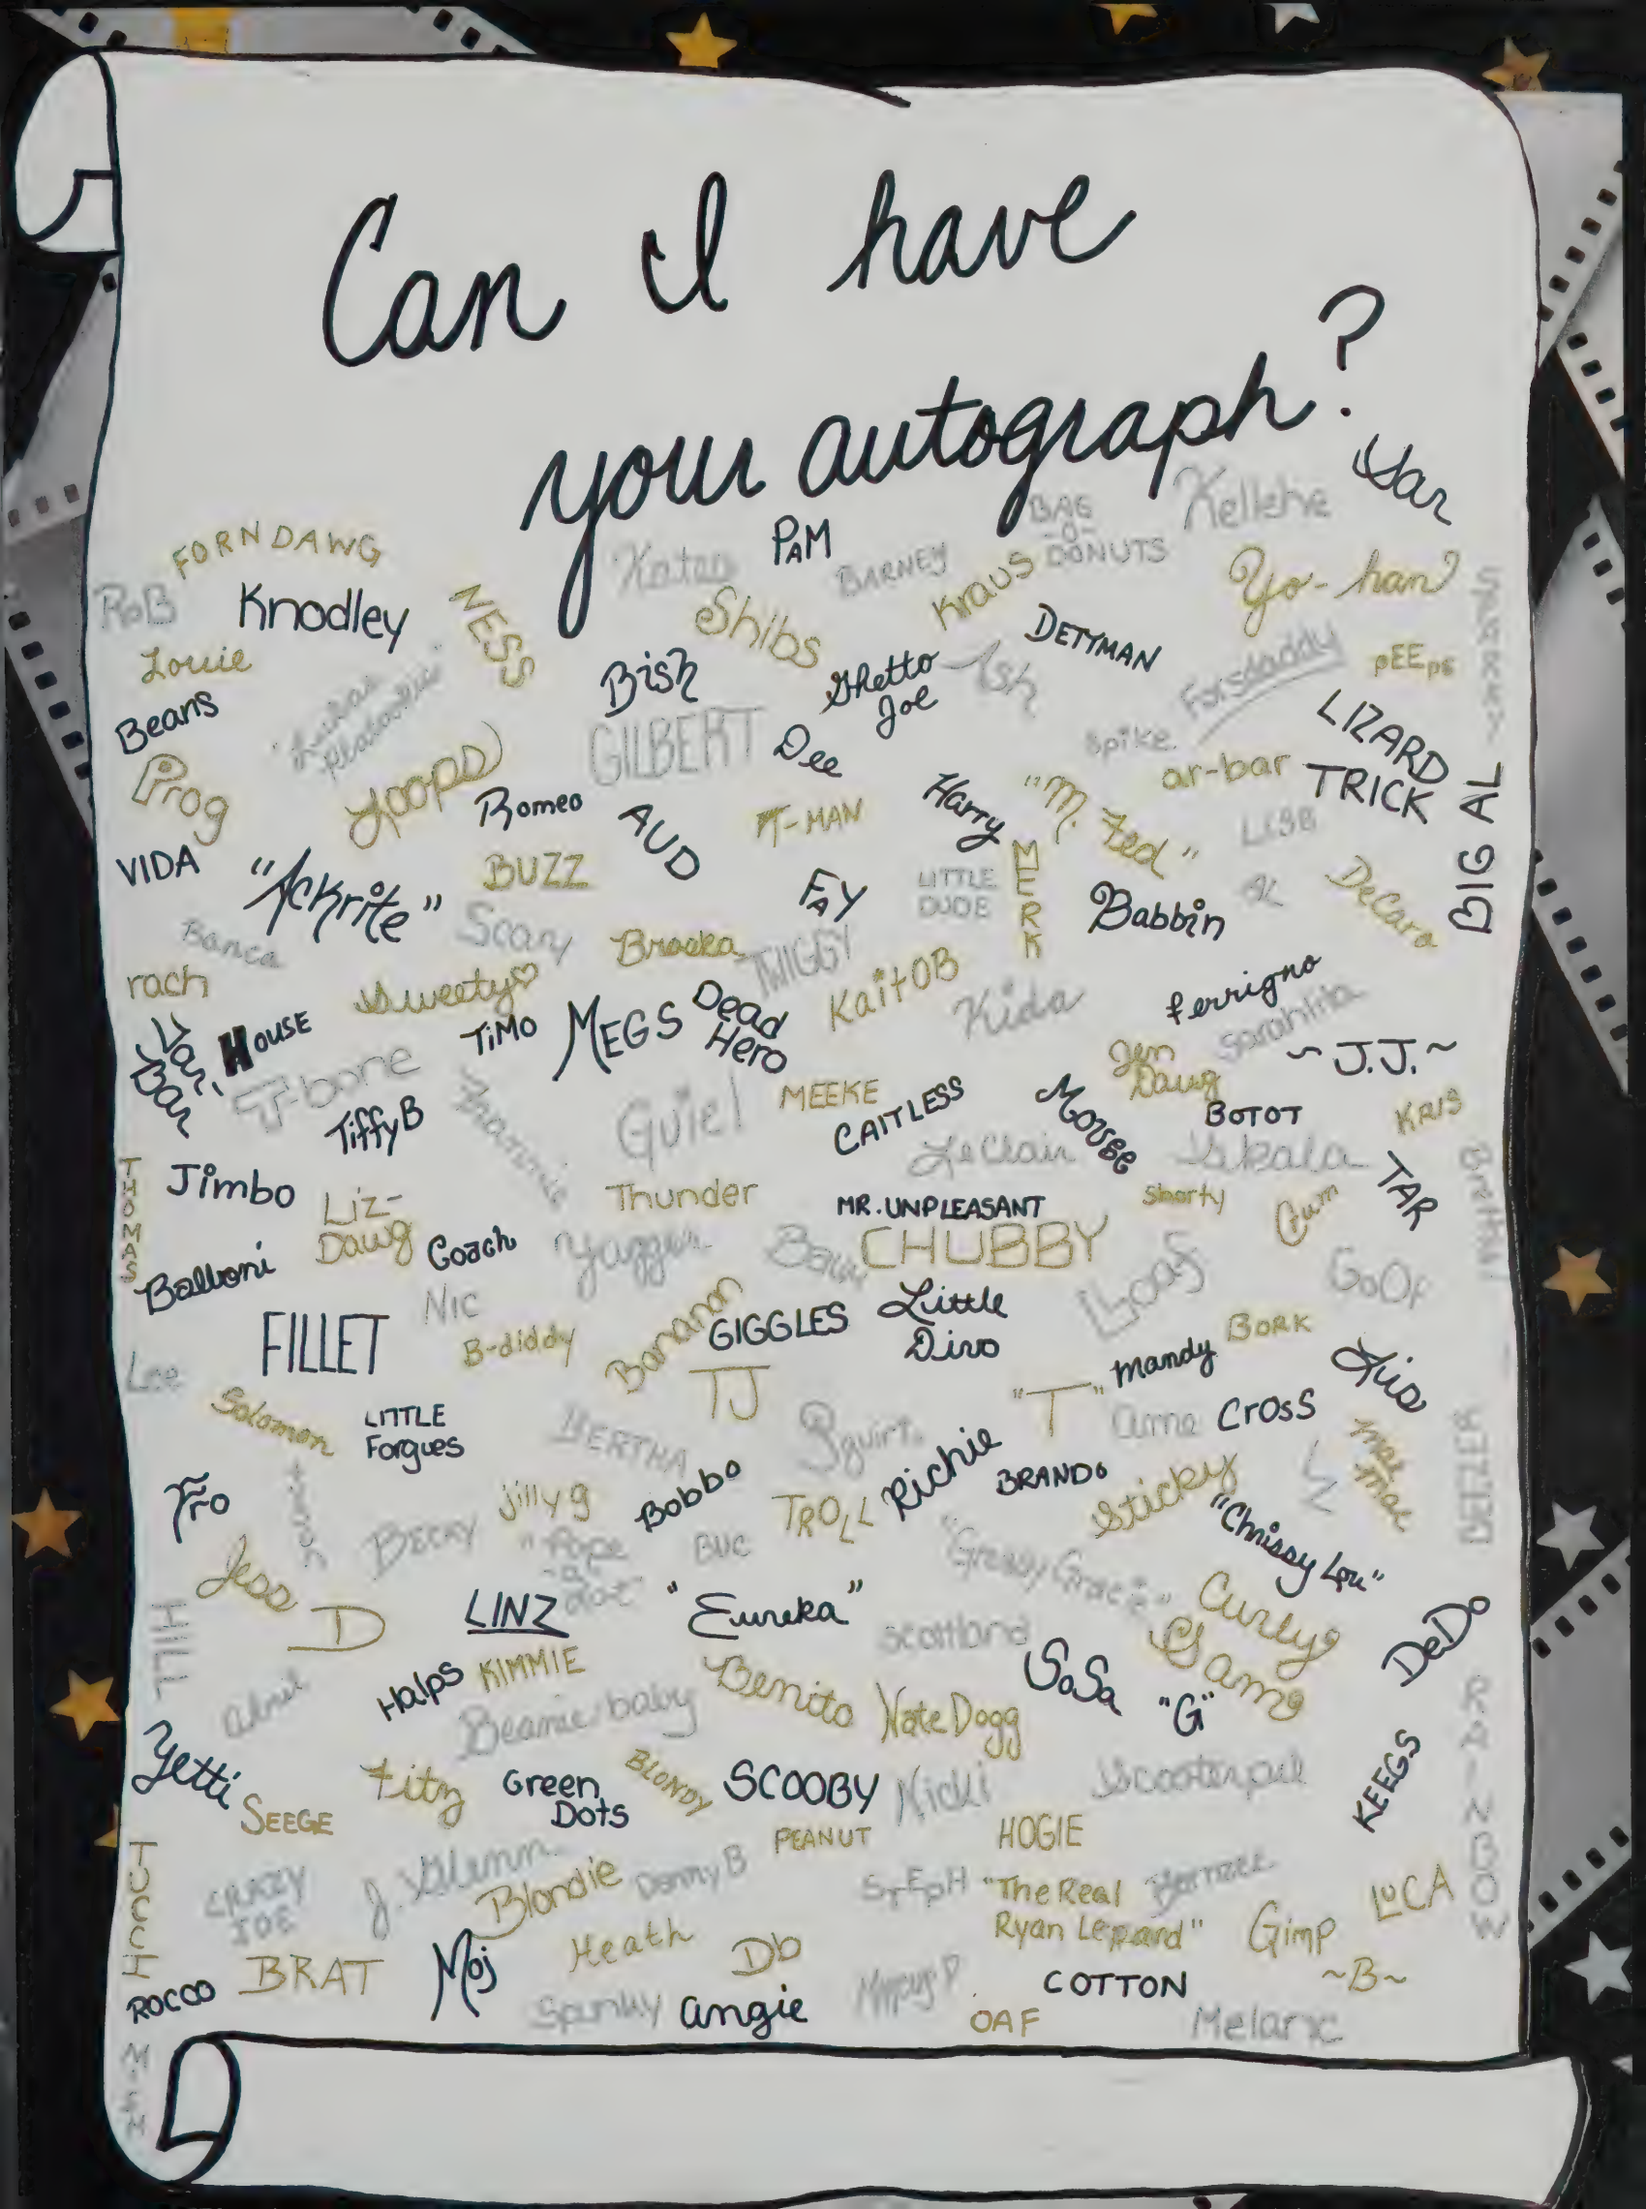

Always remember to follow the "stars . . . "

DIRECTORS

Mom and Dad, I know there must be a heaven, because you are the angels in my life. When things were easy, you taught me to push, and when life got hard, you helped me to fight through. Thank you with all my heart, I love you. Erik, I don't know where I'd be if I had to grow up without you. From the day I was born I have looked up to you, and I know you have looked out for me. Thanks for being the brother you have been. Kristin, you are like a sister to me. I don't know who I'd be if I didn't have you to mimic all these years! Thank you so much for everything you've done for me. Luca and B, we've had our good and bad times, and I wouldn't trade in any of them for the world. You've been the shoulders I've cried on and the friends I've laughed with. I will never forget either of you, PPG's 4E! Bill, I am the luckiest girl in the world to have you in my life. Thank you for never giving up on me, and always being someone I could talk to and trust. Cheerleaders, my second family. You have all given me something I'll take with me forever. I love you girls! Joey and Lauren, I can not say thank you enough for all of the hard work and dedication you have given to this book and to me. Your patience and understanding has helped me to get through one of the most difficult times of my life, and for that I will remember you always.

Love,
Jenna

Mamusia, I love you so much. I can't even begin to think of words that could possibly, thank you enough for the lessons you've taught me. It's these exact lessons, that I will use my entire life. You are the one person who was and always will be there for me. That is why no word could describe how much I love you. I owe everything to you. Dziadziu, thank you for being my guardian angel in life. I love you and always will. Paul, without your humor I don't think that I'd have made it as far as I have and I love you for that. Madzia, thanks for being the sister I never had but, glad I do now. Even through all the fights, I love you just the same. Jacek, I will always consider you my dad. I love you. Adrienne, Kayla and Rachel, * The Roxy Girls *, you guys have meant so much to me by constantly keeping me laughing. There are so many memories I have now. You guys are my sisters for life, I love you all. Jenna and Kida, You guys are like shooting "stars". There is nothing the two of you won't accomplish. Thank you so much for everything you've given me. I would have not been able to do this with out you. I love you so much! To the 2001 Sachem Staff, I love all of you. Even through the stressful times. You guys truly are what made this yearbook one to remember. I hope we all walk away proud of what we've done. Finally, Mr. Pulaski, Thank you for making dreams possible. We ALL love you!! It wasn't until the end that I realized how great the beginning was.

Love,
Joanna

Mom and Dad, thank you for everything you've done for me throughout the years. Without you I know I wouldn't be where I am today and I love you for that. Leslie, you are not only my big sister but also my best friend. We have been through a lot and with the friendship we've built, I know you'll always be in my life. I love you. Keegan, Lisa, Emily, Courtney, Jill and Becca you're the friends that people dream about having. We may fight once in a while but it's just because we are like sisters. I know we'll always be there for each other no matter where life may take us. I love you guys. Brandon, you have always been there for me and I'll never forget it. You are my best friend. I love you. To all my other friends, I cherish the times we have had together. Thank you for all the memories that I will take with me. Lastly, Jenna and Joanna, I could not ask to work with anyone better than the two of you. We have become good friends and the memories we've formed I will never forget.

Love,
Lauren

Safe!

The 2000 Agawam Girls' Softball Team continued its winning tradition as they once again returned to the playoffs. Leading them to their 14-6 victory was veteran Coach Debbie Lickley. Senior Captains Diana DiStefano, catcher, and Jen Lyman, left fielder, went above and beyond their designated responsibilities, displaying supreme leadership and dedication. Following them with their own qualities of effort and determination in each game were All-Western Mass players Jill Gendron and Second Team All-Western Mass player Tiffany Blackman. Juniors Danielle Bachini, Lisa Bienia, Jenn Bishop, Keegan Clark, and Jen Pietroniro were constantly working hard to achieve more. Freshman Vicky Taylor made a big contribution to the team, stepping up to the first baseman position, and proving that she could hold her own in varsity play. With many returning seniors, Coach Lickley is anticipating another great year. The continued success of this season is owed to all the players, who shared their skills, dedication, and fun personalities.

Captains Brian Chechile, Ben Lapins, and Brian St. Jean with Coach Pete Clark

The Brownies had everyone after them in the spring of 2000. In '99 they won the Western Mass Championship against Pittsfield, and they were determined to keep their title. Under the big guns of senior pitcher Brian St. Jean, this could have been done. Due to injuries, however, key players Corey Federico, catcher, and Ben Lapins, pitcher, were sidelined for most of the season. The Brownie defense still proved to be one of the best in Western Mass, achieving a 13-7 record. The team was made up of many juniors who will continue to help next year. Mike Brunelle, Brandon Donovan, Aaron Gilbert, and Mike Hill patrolled the outfield with grace and rallied the team continuously with timely hits. Tony LeClair led the field with his great baseball awareness, team spirit, and excellent defensive skills. Freshman slugger Matt Rheault filled in for Federico as the team's catcher. Proving to still be one of the best teams around, the Brownies made it to the Western Mass Tournament, although ultimately losing to Cathedral. The outstanding coaching of Pete Clark unquestionably has given Agawam baseball what no other coach could give. Under his guidance, the Brownies will undoubtedly prove to be successful for years to come.

Under the guidance of fifth year Agawam High School Lacrosse Coach Cindy Grieve, the team was up and ready for some tough competition during their 2000 season. They ended up with an impressive record of 10-9, with a post season appearance at Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard. The girls showed hustle and heart, and gained much respect from around the league. Defensively leading the way, were All-Western Mass Player Sheri Benton and senior tri-captains Annie Paquette, Mary-Elizabeth Dupelle, and Amanda Sternowski. With outstanding effort from league all-star Katie Shannon, the offense was very effective. Seniors Laura Reveruzzi, Sarah Prussman, and Stephanie Ceccarini also proved to be strong assets to the team, stepping up to play to put down any offensive attempt by the opponent. Juniors Kara Barnes, Lauren Kida, Sara Gregory, and Becca Nacewicz provided motivation and an essential boost all around. Strong play and solid teamwork definitely made the Brownies season a successful one. With an excellent coaching staff and much experience and talent, next year's team will strive to achieve all that this team did.

In the 2000 spring season, the Boys Lacrosse Team showed Western Mass what sort of damage Agawam High is capable of doing. Led by senior captains Kevin Grealis, Matt Porier, Dave Moore, and junior captain Jim Evans, the Brownies dominated their competition time and time again. Just a few years ago, the sport was new to Agawam and the team struggled to win games. In 2000, the Brownies went undefeated with an 8-0 record in their league, the Valley Wheel. After winning the Valley Wheel Championship, the team went on to the Western Mass tourney. Unfortunately, they lost in the first round to Northampton, a powerhouse team that they had beaten twice during their regular season. Do not fret, however, because the Brownies have a returning team that is stronger than ever. Although they lost first-team all-league seniors Tony Ruscio and Kevin Grealis (who was also awarded All-Western Mass honors), returning in 2001 are seniors Jim Evans, Greg Boisvert, Mike Tercyak, and Joe Lancour, who all received all-league honors their junior year, as well as a host of other strong and talented upperclassmen. The 2000 boys' lacrosse team was quite successful and hopes to fight for the Western Mass title in 2001.

The 2000 Girls' Tennis Team hit the courts with long-time Coach Mary Wolochowicz leading the way. Senior co-captain Kaitlin White had a very successful season at the coveted number one singles position, and demonstrated her winning spirit as she guided the younger and less experienced players. While working the net she proved why she was named All-League. Liz Stieg, a junior, played at the prestigious number two slot, as she gained valuable experience with every match. Senior co-captain Kelly Webb also had a successful season at the number three position, as she dominated most of her competition. First doubles was played by the very talented duo of junior Lisa Niedziela and sophomore Jen Jutte. They won many of their matches, crushing their opposition. Jen Leupo, Kaitlin O'Brien, and Kerri Merriam all played important roles during the season. Each and every girl showed great determination and worked hard for every point. It is evident that this team will grow stronger in the years to come, and Coach Wolochowicz is looking forward to many more prosperous seasons. The season ended with a final 7-11 record.

his year the AHS Boys' Tennis Team endured another tough season, 1-15. Despite their out- ıe, they still had plenty of heart. Leading the way for the Brownies in 2000 were sophomore m Rovithis and junior Ryan Lepard, at first and second singles, respectively. Newcomer nael Federico made an immediate impact on the team, as he stepped up to the net, and shed his opposition. Senior Mike Krapf and junior Mike Kirk played well, with some ex- nely close matches to Longmeadow and Central, and sophomores Jared Hamre and Colin ray worked hard all season and gained much experience from every game. With a strong re- ıing team, Coach Bill Spear is optimistic for the 2001 season. He hopes that they will con- e to be competitive and show improvement with their determined work ethic and strong lership. Although it was a frustrating season, it was not from lack of effort, and 2001 prom- to be a turnaround.

Girls' Track

The Agawam Girls' Track Team felt the need for speed in the spring of 2000. With the hard work of Coaches Dean Vecchiarelli, Dan Pryce, and Rebecca Brown, the team really showed a lot of strength all around. Senior captains Marie Buendo, Kristen Lawson, Gina Loudfoot, Kerry McGeoghan, and Aja Paquette led the team with great pride to victories at seven of their nine meets. There were many excellent accomplishments that completed this season. Kerry McGeoghan and sophomore Kelly Cassidy qualified for the State Meet and were awarded All-Western Mass honors. Junior Amy Jensen dominated the track in the one mile, and will continue to be a force next year. Juniors Lauren DeLuca, Ashlee Lorraine, Bianca Chase, and Laura Bucalo performed remarkably in the triple jump, pole vault, and javelin and shot-put, respectively. With strong athletes in every event, the girls placed third in their league, losing only to powerhouses Longmeadow and Cathedral, and they placed fourth in Western Mass. The girls' track program is one of the largest and strongest at Agawam High. Although the team said goodbye to quite a few seniors, the track team always enlists more ladies that it loses from the year before. This season the girls' team showed their ability to succeed, and the Brownies will certainly dominate the competition and keep running strong into 2001.

ook at "Action Jackson" go!!

The 2000 Agawam Field Hockey Team was one of the hardest working teams around. The constant support, guidance, and love of Coach Carla Lemnah-Warner led them through their productive season. Although their record was 2-5-9, the team played extremely well. The two wins came in the first two games; many of the other games were close, with Agawam just not being able to finish off the win. Senior tri-captains Corinne Butova, Danielle Bachini, and Sara Gregory all demonstrated great leadership skills on and off the field. The fast skilled forward line, Jen Pietroniero, Danielle Bachini, and Ally Nowell, worked hard to keep the offense active. Midfielders Jenn Bishop and Erin Jackson dominated the midfield with their hard drives, stick skills, and speed. The "Dynamic Duo" of Nicole Dominick and Corinne Butova were the backbone of the team working together to keep the ball out of the circle. Junior goalie Alyssa Goodrow had a spectacular season in the net. Ally Nowell, Erin Jackson, Kara Dominick, and Jessica Roy, juniors, were valuable assets to the team. The most exciting game of the season was on Senior Night. The Brownies wasted no time preparing to face their rival team, West Side, with what Agawam was made of. The girls played their hearts out and gave everything they had on the field, achieving a 0-0 tie. It was a sad game for the seniors, knowing it was their last high school game. However, the Brownies look forward to improving their record next year, with a strong returning team. This was a season not to be forgotten, and the hard work of all the girls definitely proved that they were "chicks with sticks."

The Agawam Boys Varsity Football Team to the gridiron with a vigorous season ahead, they played in one of the toughest divisions the state. Second year coach Tad Desaut knew that the Brownies would have to wo hard in order to accomplish their goals. though they ended up with a 1-9 record, ea and every player improved while maintaining high level of pride. The five senior captai Isidro Aguinaga, Nick Beaudette, Frank F rentino, Tony Liquori, and Ryan Malanson, showed great leadership and a "never quit" a tude throughout the season. Sophomore qu terback Joe Clark played well as he piled up 6 passing yards and completed 5 TD passes. T ground game was solid, with the strong play Tony Liquori, who had 5 rushing TDs, and juni Vitaly Dzhenzherukha, who had 7 TDs. Soph more Mike Locke stepped up defensively, as racked up 95 tackles and 2 sacks. Seniors L Conte, at the tight end position, and Frank F rentino, playing the offensive guard positio were named to the All A.A. Conference Tea Each player displayed great persistence in eve game, giving it their all, day in and day o Looking back, Coach Desautels remarke "What these young men learned throughout t course of the season is something that will bri success to each of them as they leave Agawa High School." Next year looks promising, there is a fine returning team and a number JV players with great potential. The Brownies a looking forward to getting back on the field the fall of 2001 and making some noise in th respected conference.

The Agawam High Golf Team witnessed many new things in 2000. Computer teacher Bill L'Heureux stepped in to share his wealth of golf knowledge with the team. Three new seniors joined the team this year, Brandon Donovan, Corey Federico, and Bruce Linder. Another new addition to the team was, for a period of time anyways, girls! That's right. For the first time, ladies had joined the AHS golf team. With all these new additions, there was one old tradition that continued on, and that was winning. Senior Captains Andy Green and Kacy Progulske, along with junior Captain Bill Menard, led the Brownies to eleven wins in eighteen matches. Key players on the team included AJ Oleksak, and all-conference players Andy Green and Bill Menard. With a strong tradition of winning, and powerful returning underclassmen, the Brownies will continue to dominate the links in 2001.

Three words can sum up the 2000 Girls' Gymnastics season: Western Mass Champs! T year, the team was undefeated with an outstanding record of 20-0. Led by Captains senior Clark, and junior Dolores Cuccovia, the team performed with perfection at every meet. Aft disappointing last season, Coach Allison Bonnyman was extremely pleased with the 2000 t out. Sophomore Andrea Babbin excelled at every event, as she received the Best All-Aroun tle at the Western Mass Competition. Freshmen Jessica Tully, Mary Zajac, and Katie and Al Malloy proved that they can really move with their awesome floor exercises. Eva Ubod showed everyone what she was made of on the beam, and Liz Clark flew around the une bars. The Lady Brownies faced a difficult season in the fall of 2000, finishing with a record of 1-13-3. The girls, under second year coach Laura Wray-Ramos, had a rebuilding year after losing powerful seniors in 1999, and underclassmen had to step up and play some serious ball. Led by senior captains Courtney Adamczyk, Amy Jensen, Amanda Merola, Jill Gendron and Laura Bucalo, the girls played strong and tough against their difficult competition, defeating and tying Central, as well as tying Minnechaug and Amherst in their seventeen game season. Returning next season will be powerful veterans Jill Lawson, Desiree Marsili, Amanda Blair, and a host of other seasoned athletes destined to be victorious in 2001.

The Agawam Boys' Varsity Soccer Team had many adjustments to make in 2000. After the 1999 season, the team lost ten seniors and Coach Glenn Olson stepped down to coach the freshman team. The team had dropped back into the very competitive Churchill-Moriarty Division that it had won five years before, and new head coach Jon Cavallo, who came from Ludlow, was determined to lead the Brownies to victory once again. Senior co-captain and goalkeeper John DeCaro once again showed Western Mass that he is a force in net like none other, earning All-Western Mass and all-state awards. Aaron Gilbert, also a co-captain, lead the team in goals scored, even after injuring his foot in the fifth game, and missing the rest of the season. Although the Brownies didn't make the Western Mass tournament in 2000, the team's young talent will soon take it to the top. Junior co-captains Mike Crough and Mike Carmody, along with junior Jon Sikes and sophomore Dave Bienia proved to be one of the strongest defenses in Western Mass, stopping down offenses with aggressive play. Juniors Matt Ligenza and Eric Serna, along with sophomore Mike McGeoghan added more goals to the team's total, some in very clutch situations. The Brownies finished short of the tournament this year with a record of 5-10-3, but not without any accomplishments, and they'll be back next year, stronger than ever before.

The 2000 Girls' volleyball team "set" themselves ready for the hard season awaiting them. As a fairly young sport at Agawam High School, the team still has some growing to do. However led by, the powerhouse team of Seniors Liz Stieg, Kara Barnes and Lindsey Jeserski, the team proved they didn't want to wait long and came out of the season with four wins. Unfortunately, these four wins came with sixteen disappointing losses. Coach Demers will try to prepare next year's team to overcome any obstacles they may have endured this season. With a busload of underclassmen who are ready and waiting to play, the 2001 team is anticipating the "return" of many experienced players. Next year's team plans to "bump" the competition out of bounds; with this much drive and determination the team is sure to prove their Brownie spirit.

Jill Gendron sparked the offense and sh played well on the defensive end. Liz Steig led the team in three po for the second season as she picked up her defensive game. Laura B continued to play hard throughout the season despite giving up som inside. Keegan Clark demonstrated great leadership skills and great ethics. Also helping the cause were sophomore Vicky Taylor and Jenna Shea. Taylor led the team in rebounds and Shea was a great d sive player as she held some of the best players in Western Mass. to digits. Newcomers Amanda Blair, Erin Corbin, Lucy Young, Kristen and Meghan Kelly all contributed to the team, proving that they coul their own in varsity play. The 2000-01 boys' basketball team improved their record with the help of hard work, new players, and second year coach Alves. The young Brownie team opened up their season with a victory over Sci-Tech to break their long losing streak. The team then never gave up as they went on to win 2 more games in the season, bettering their previous year's record. The team was lead by senior captain Lou Conte. With his presence inside, Agawam had a strong offensive threat and a consistent rebounder. Also contributing big time was junior Vitaly Dzhenzheruka as he put up solid numbers all season long. Seniors Shawn Mercadante and Adam Ellsworth also helped lead the young Brownie squad. Merc once again was successful from three-point range and Ellsworth played with heart and hustle every game. New comers Ian Kearney, starting point guard, and sophomores Dave Bienia, Joe Clark, Mike DeFilipi, and Mario Maloni all played important roles during the season. Despite some minor setbacks, the boys' basketball team improved with each game. Next year will be even better with a strong core of the team returning.

Another successful wrestling year is in the bag for the 2000-01 season. The Brownies continued their winning tradition under second year coach Kirk Parker. The results that the Brownies posted came with their dedication to the tradition of Agawam wrestling, first started by long time coach Phil Tomkiel. The team ended up second in Western Mass. with 205½ points. Individual Western Mass. winners include seniors Eric Hogan (119 lbs.), Luke Cardone (130 lbs.), Aaron Gilbert (145 lbs.), and junior Brian Pederson (189 lbs.). The team was very talented in every weight class. Senior Corey Federico was an early contender but unfortunately injury caused him to miss the last part of the season. Senior captain Nick Beaudette finished third in Western Mass. in the 171 lb. weight class. Also helping lead the way was senior Mike Hill. Hill wrestled in the 152 lb. weight class and he also finished third in the tourney. Each wrestler that took part in Agawam's traditionally rich sport carried on the winning ways for the future with their desire and commitment to the team. Next year's team looks to be just as successful and can't wait to hit the mats to regain the Western Mass. Title.

The Agawam High Boys' Ski Team turned lots of heads in the winter of 2001. Losing only one senior to graduation, the team was as powerful as ever, if not the strongest it had ever been. Led by coach Glenn Olson and senior captains Sean DeVall, Brandon Donovan and Bill Campana, the team, which has always been dominant in Western Mass, continued to be a force at Berkshire East by placing third in the A Division and in Western Mass. An outstanding accomplishment for the Brownies was the defeat of rival and Western Mass power Mohawk Trail. The Brownies beat Mohawk and skied into a first place finish for the first time in twelve years. The experienced seniors, including Sean DeVall who placed in the top five in almost every race, were supported by reliable and fast freshmen James Messier and Paul Surowiec. Although the Brownies are not going to states as a team, the three captains, who were ranked in the top fifteen in Western Mass will all be going to compete individually. The team will be losing five seniors to graduation, however the combination of knowledgeable upperclassmen and strong freshmen will keep the team alive and strong in the fight for a Western Mass title!

The Mr. Agawam contestants showed nothing but class as they showed their stuff in the talent competition and strutted down the runway in their studly (well for the most part) formal wear. In the end, senior Michael Federico came out victorious as Mr. Agawam 2000. He will hold the crown until next year when a new Mr. Agawam will take his place.

Kid Party

November 9, 2000 marked the annual Senior Kid Party. Seniors' costumes were judged, but prizes couldn't be awarded . . . the judge's verdict? Well, everybody won! This year's costumes were all so amazing, that one winner couldn't be chosen! Scuba Steve, 'NSYNC, and King Arthur's Royal Court made a grand entrance, while the senior cheerleaders proved that we truly live in a "Barbie World". Charlie's Angels protected us from evil, and the Princesses and Genies absolutely mesmerized us, while the moocow was utterly amazing. "The Mask(s)" that hung over everybody's faces did not stop the fun or the excitement! Popcorn, cotton candy and snow cones satisfied our taste buds while waiting in line to get drawn by our very own caricaturist! The night was filled with dancing, games, and good times with old and new friends alike. And everyone knows that this night will be a memorable one for the 'kids' of 2001.

The glorious "Colours" were everywhere! Orange and Brown is! Posters, balloons, confetti and silly string filled the gym. through their performances, the band and cheerleaders strive awaken the AHS spirit in all of us. Our school fight song "Joyous Ever Loyal", could be heard echoing throughout the entire buil The excited singing got louder and louder, as each class fought t feat the others. The most glorious rendition came from the win seniors of '01, who truly proved that they were "Joyous and Loyal". Following in a close second was the sophomore class, and ing in behind them, the juniors. Bringing up the rear was the fresh class whose amount of signs and orange shirts and knowledge o song shocked us all. As the day drew to a close, we watched an tened in excitement as the football coach and captains encourage to come out on Thanksgiving Day and "route for our old Aga High, HEY!"

For many people, halftime at an AHS football game is a chance to grab a hot dog or a hot chocolate. However, for the Agawam High School Marching Mohawks, it is their time to shine! Not only do they provide entertainment at football games and march in local parades, but they also participate in competitions with other prominent bands in New England. This year the Marching Mohawks competed in the USSBA circuit under the direction of Drum Majors Danielle Sienkiewicz, Mike Federico, Jackie LeGrand, and Danielle Welner. "Nightmare 2000" came to AHS and took the field by storm! Come heavy downpours or bitter temperatures, the AHS Marching Mohawks continued to perform with enthusiasm and excitement, while maintaining their "Eyes With Pride." Each spring the marching band competes with bands from across the nation. This year the Marching Mohawks represented AHS at Disney World in Orlando, FL. This group truly proved that they were a "Phenomenon" that wasn't going to stop!

Nightmare 2000 has come to Agawam!

Jazz Band

Bill shows off his musical talent!

Take one tablespoon of jazz music, three teaspoons of excellence, and a pinch of hard work, mix it all together, and you have the recipe for our award winning Jazz Band. These brilliant artists play a vast repertoire of music. From blues to calypso-funk, this organization truly proves their knowledge of the art. While playing in the annual Christmas concert and on Jazz Night, the Jazz Band proves that it is "Swing Time" whenever they perform. The Jazz Band competes in the I.A.J.E. festivals and other festivals throughout the state. This group has proven the distinction of being one of the finest programs in the area. But alas, it is none other than the Agawam High School Indoor Percussion Ensemble. Under the leadership of Christina Climo and Danielle Sienkiewicz, this group has had many hardships to overcome this year. Even though their instructor resigned, the group had no desire to give up. With extreme hard work and help from various angels, they produced a spectacular show. This band started five years ago and is not planning to stop anytime in the distant future. The members spend an additional two nights a week practicing in earnest to please and astound their audiences with their Frank Zappa Medley. With hard work and dedication, this bunch will continue to see gold in the future!

Have you cracked the code yet?

I think I know what I'm doing . . .

Do you enjoy hearing all about hard drives, and mega bites, and speed connections? If so, then joining the Agawam High School Computer Club might be the thing for you! This group, with Mr. McCaffrey as their advisor, meets after school, in order to work with and learn more about computers. They are also experienced enough to perform repairs throughout the computers in the building. So, the next time you have any problems booting up Windows 98, just like in "South Park", call on the AHS computer club.

The Future Teachers of America is one of the most popular and hard-working clubs at Agawam High. Signor Orefice makes this club productive and fun. "The Mission" of this organization is simple; they set up many fund raisers throughout the year to benefit their cause. They are responsible for organizing the blood drives, the Penney War, selling candy, and many other events during the year.

The officers and exchange students!

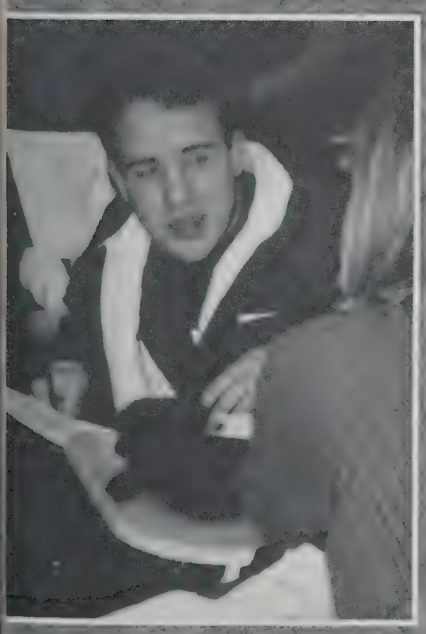

Have you ever wondered who the new faces you pass in the hall are? Well, they are probably the foreign exchange students, who belong to AFS. This group helps to make their stay enjoyable by taking a trip to New York, and having International Exchange weekends, during which they organize sledding trips, brunches, and other fun activities. This year's exchange students consisted of Jana Lohmann and Meike Mentzel, from Germany, Sarah Sorensen, from Denmark, and Kat Walsh, from Australia. The girls' experience here was somewhat of "A Foreign Affair", and even after they've left, they'll always have memories of the fun times with AFS. "Great family, great school and friends, great AFS, what more could I have asked for?" — Sarah Sorensen.

Peer Mediation

You think I have a problem?

Why are you touching me?

There was a fight between two kids in school . . . and who do you call to help? "Ghost Busters!" No, you call our famous Peer Mediators! This group of students including Matt Ligenza, Erica Gregoire, Alyson Skok, Brittany Theriaque, and Melissa King gets together whenever there is a problem among students. Each "side" gets to present their case and then a mutual agreement is made and a contract is signed. Mr. Jack Dougherty is the advisor to this prestigious group, and is very helpful in handling touchy situations.

Peer Leadership

A leader is one who sets an example for others to follow and that exactly what these determined students do! This is a group of dicated students who have made a commitment to not use to-cco, drink alcohol, or do other drugs by signing a contract in ptember. They meet every Wednesday to discuss their plans for : Great American Smoke-Out, the Chain of Life, D.A.R.E. at the ddle School, and other various activities. Their goal - to promote ety and other issues dealing with drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. eir biggest event of the year is Grim Reaper Day in conjunction h the mock accident and mock wake. They like playing "Saving ace" and educating the younger grades with a presentation of ts. The Peer Leaders have a huge responsibility but they con-er it worthwhile. This year the group was led by Co-Presidents nielle Sienkiewicz and Ellen Nasiatka. Like always, the members Peer Leadership enjoyed another successful year.

Shakespeare Society

How I Love thee . . . let me count the ways.

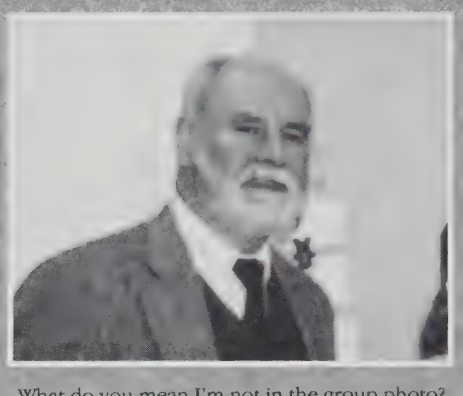

Mo's in the snow.

For most students, the first mention of W liam Shakespeare's name is enough to m them cringe. There are just too many "where thou's and thee's" in his plays. Here at Agaw High School, however, the famous Shakespe Society knows just how to make his works and interesting for everyone. Made up of Larry O'Brien's prestigious AP English studer the group puts together informative preser tions and an assembly for the rest of the stud body, during Shakespeare Week. With Tim R strom and Corinne Butova as Lord and L Chamberlain, this year's society will surely together a performance not to be forgott There goal is to show everyone that Shak peare can be fun, and besides, according to ever-popular "Scary Movie", "Shake-a-speare Love" is definitely a movie worth viewing!

Peek-a-BOO!

What do you mean I'm not in the group photo?

Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Club made its debut appearance at Agawam High School this year. Under the direction of Mr. Joe Bianca, this club meets once a week to discuss famous philosophers, such as Nostradamus. This group of students truly prove that we are not like the "One Who Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest", but are interested in philosophy and famous philosophers! Expect a promising future for this new club!

This is Colin . . . or is it?

I AM . . . God's gift to women?

The 2000-2001 Philosophy Club

Intergenerational Book Club

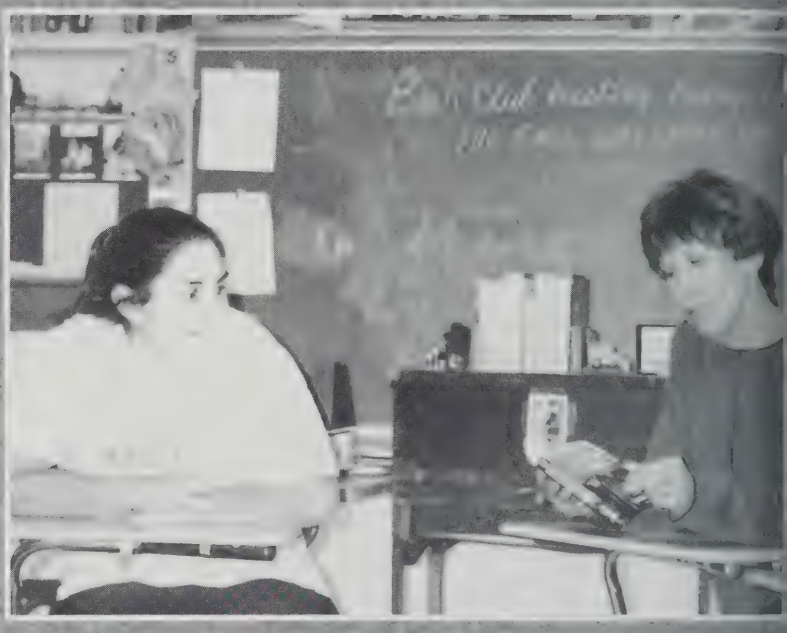

Shh! Lz's in deep thought.

Reading is one of the most powerful tools the imagination can use. It can carry you to far off lands, fulfill your wildest fantasies, and still have you home in time for dinner. Mrs. Poulin realized this when she started the Book club. In its second year, the Book club has been very prosperous. The members of the club read an assigned book and then join together to discuss and comment on it. It is an excellent way for students and teachers to gain insight on a piece. Join the Book club and you never know "What Dreams May Come" true through reading.

I don't get it!

Mrs. Poulin quotes the book's theme.

The 2000-2001 Intergenerational Book Club members.

Can we get this book on tape?

Uniqorn

If you're ever in the mood to lose yourself in a fantasy world, laugh uncontrollably, or get a bit teary-eyed, just pick up a copy of The Uniqorn, Agawam High School's Literary magazine. A talented group of writers and artists, the Uniqorn staff puts together a copy of the magazine each winter and spring. Next time you want to read the "Write Stuff", a copy of the Uniqorn is not too far away.

They can publish this?

We're lean, mean, writing machines.

I can't wait till I'm published.

The 2000-2001 Mirror Staff.

Remember its quality not quantity.

Is this supposed to be interesting?

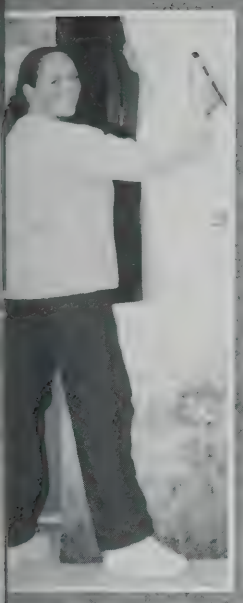

Nick and Katie wonder who wrote this quote

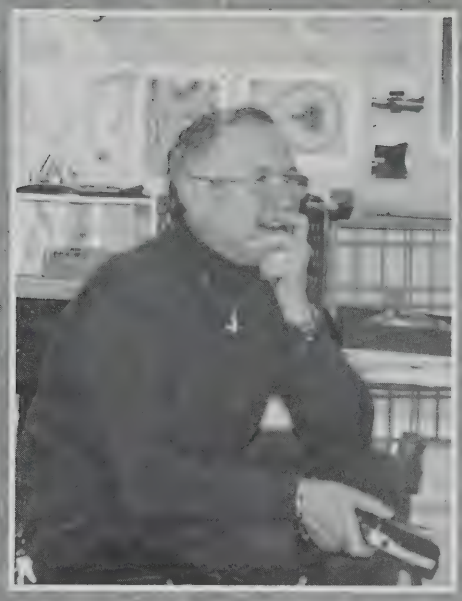

Six times a year, our award-winning news staff publishes an issue of Agawam High School's newspaper. With Mr. Larry O'Brien as the advisor, and Corinne Butova as the Editor-In-Chief, the staff covers a wide variety of stories and really produces an outstanding paper. Everyone enjoys being chosen to be a "Roving Reporter" and reading the famous Advice Column and of course, the Brownie Bites. So the next time you want to catch up on the latest, take "a look inside the Mirror", and remember all the hard work that "The Newsies" put into producing it.

The amazing book that you are holding in your hands was made possible with the incredible determination, imagination, and hard work of the 2001 Sachem Staff. Now you may be sitting there, asking yourself, "What goes into making a yearbook?" Well, under the direction of veteran advisor David Pulaski, this year's staff quickly learned that teamwork, dedication, and time are the key factors that produce only the best yearbook, year after year.

Known for its tremendous capabilities, this year, once again, the Class of 2001 took the initiative to participate in something spectacular: the creation of the yearbook. With the "Dynamic Duo" of Jenna Bodurtha and Joanna Surowiec as Co-Editors-In-Chief, and Lauren Kida as the equally charismatic Associate Editor, there was an immense amount of work to be done, especially right before each of the six deadlines. This incredible trio of leaders made sure that everyone stayed on task throughout the year, and that each staff had just enough work to keep them busy. They too, had plenty to do, from organizing the sacred layout book, to correcting everything turned in by the staff, to mailing everything out (ON TIME, Joanna), while at the same time, checking the proofs from the previous deadline. The famed "Layout Weekends" at which everything was finalized will surely never be forgotten, and some staff members will be trying to catch up on their sleep for a long time still to come, as a result of a certain staff member's snoring . . .

"Where's Luca?" At the first sound of this question, Secretary Lauren DeLuca would jump out of her seat and run to the back of the room to hide behind the filing cabinet. Well not really, but she probably felt like it. Lauren always had plenty to keep her busy, whether it was guarding Mr. Pulaski's desk (yeah right), or finding the ever-popular candy jar (the good candy always seemed to be gone . . .), or making phone calls (one in particular, that she will never live down - four weeks?!?). Lauren had the fun job of choosing the eagerly anticipated "Photo of the Day", and she was occasionally asked to write announcements (although she usually had help with those). If any staff needed help, Lauren was right there, always ready and willing to do anything she could. She was an essential member of the staff, serving not only Mr. Pulaski, but everyone else as well.

"Do we have a finished ladder diagram yet?" This was a frequent question from Layout Editor Michael Federico. Digging their way through mounds of scale-o-graphs (which break easily), final layout sheets, page envelopes, and copy keys, were the rest of his staff members, Corinne Butova, Nicole Dominick, and Ashley Guiel. These four used great teamwork all year, perfecting each and every page of the yearbook. Mike did a notable job making sure that they always used consistent margins, and that each picture was cropped correctly, and not cutting off any heads. The only real mystery was what ever happened to all of the cropping crayons . . . By the way, to Jenna, Joanna, and Lauren, Mike (and the rest of the staff) still want to know if you've finished the ladder yet . . .

Incredible imagination and creativity were the foundation for every written aspect of this yearbook. With Kaitlin O'Brien as the Editor, the amazing Literary Staff of Heather Crescentini, Sarah Lottermoser, and Danielle Sienkiewicz, kept everyone entertained and proved their talents with comical captions and extremely fast typing skills. Senior Kits were among their favorite things to tackle this year, along with teacher captions, and of course, all the write-ups. Kaitlin did a terrific job editing everything, and will definitely testify that after twelve years of school, most seniors still can't spell (sound familiar Kida??). The staff learned some very important lessons, such as spending more than 4 hours straight on a computer can cause eyestrain, always use spell check, and save everything to a disc. But thanks to Mr. Pulaski, if any major problems ever arose, they could always use this piece of advice to fall back on: when in doubt, blame layout!

"Ready, smile!" . . . The famous last words of this year's Photography Staff. Thanks to the creative minds of Photo Editor Megan Loomis, and staffers Danielle Bachini, Lisa Niedziela, Adrienne Major, and Jen Plamondon, the strikingly enticing photos you see in the yearbook, are far more scintillating and ingenious than ever before. Although there were a few MINOR problems at the beginning of the year, such an occasionally cutting off people's heads (two words: Ballot Box), this staff really gave it their all, and did an outstanding job (well once they figured out exactly when to use forced flash . . .). Jen and Lisa probably had a little too much fun inventing new uses for the film cases, in their (Jen's) ceaseless attempts to be silly-stringed by Mr. Pulaski, but that's enough said about that . . . Whether it was catching people off guard, or coming up with clever poses, these five girls definitely captured many memories for everyone to look back on the and cherish in the years to come.

"Show me the money!" That's right! That was the thought that ran through each of the minds of the members of this year's Advertising Staff daily. Led by Editor Lisa Bienia, Aimee Piccin, Jen Pietroniro, Jamie Santos, and Annie Shibley bravely ventured out into the "real world" each day. Th period, to attempt to convince businesses to purchase ads for the Sachem. Representing Agawam with dazzling courtesy, these girls managed to convince a tremendous number of businesses to support the yearbook. Although many people may not realize it, ads are a very important aspect of the yearbook the generous contributions from these companies held to defray the cost of the yearbook a great deal. Each staff member had a thermometer to monitor her progress, and their hard work "paid off" (literally), and their goals were reached in time for each deadline. Only one question remains: In which drawer of the filing cabinet is Mr. Pulaski's secret candy stash? To find the answer, you might try questioning these yearbook staffers . . .

Underclassmen and Scissors . . . what do these have in common? That's right, combined, these make up one of the many jobs of the Business Staff. You might be wondering exactly how they fit together . . . well, not only was the Business Staff responsible for handling every single order that came in for a yearbook, this year, they were also granted the wonderful job of cutting out every single underclassmen picture. Editor Keegan Clark, along with staffers Bianca Chase and Gina Goralczyk, spent quite a few class periods cutting and cutting . . . then came an even tougher job, of deciding which of the pictures to use (since in some cases the picture had been retaken). So not only did they have to complete that tedious task, but they also had to come to school early and stay late every day for a month, in order to complete each and every yearbook order, and they had to keep track of all the Senior Salutes. Business did a phenomenal job handling all of the money that went into producing this yearbook, and (to everyone's surprise), NO, they didn't once try to pocket any of it!

This year's Sports Staff was made up of two remarkable athletes, Bill Campana and Liz Stieg. Each of them is a three-season athlete, so it's not surprising that they were chosen to share their wealth of sports knowledge with everyone. Together, they spent countless hours going through team pictures and action shots, and team records and stats, so that the sports pages and write-ups could be done to perfection. These ambitious staffers also came up with the original "What's Going On Here?" pictures and captions, and illustrated each sport with Agawam High School's very own Indian Brownie Mascot. Bill and Liz made it their "goal" to get their job done, and their personalities definitely added to the irreplaceable charm of the yearbook staff. They were always willing to help out wherever they were needed, and were greatly appreciated by the rest of the staff, even if Liz still needs to learn how to type . . .

So, as you now know, there really is an immense amount of responsibility that goes into generating the yearbook. Don't get the wrong idea though; it might seem like "The Neverending Story", but it's not just all work and no play. John Sears once said "It's not work if you love what you're doing." This quote perfectly fits the attitude of each member of the 2001 Sachem Staff. Every person honestly enjoyed the time and effort they put into the production of the Sachem. The staff worked exceptionally hard, and managed to put together what is said to be "the best yearbook ever." Last but certainly not least, this finished yearbook is also owed to its expert advisor, Mr. David Pulaski. He deserves tremendous credit and praise for everything; his years of experience have definitely paid off, and although it was his last year to be the advisor, as he is looking forward to a long-awaited retirement, he'll keep memories of this year and the 2001 Staff forever. From the "Weekend Junkies" performances, to "The Twelve Things Of Yearbook", to Drywall, to Silly-String, the staff has one last thing they'd like to say to Mr. Pulaski: "Thanks For The Memories!"

P.S. Hey Mike, don't throw this in the trash!!

Reflections In The Looking Glass

Memories unfold and years they pass,
reflections in the looking glass.
A newborn baby's trusting eyes,
she cuddles close - contented sighs.
You look away and then back again,
to bows and braids and dolls and then . . .
Tiny dancers in a row,
who tap and giggle and steal the show.
It doesn't seem that long ago,
that she was very small

Then one fine day as in a dream,
you wake and find she's turned eighteen.
A new born woman stands confident — strong,
as if she's been there all along.
There's dates and proms, a cap and gown,
it's funny how life turns around . . .
A new beginnings drawing near,
cherished moments - sentimental tears,
As destiny whispers in her ear and time keeps moving on . . .

Now we pack her things away,
treasures from her childhood days.
Somehow by chance, I turn and pass,
her reflection in the looking glass,
and there reflected back at me,
a fleeting glimpse - a memory
in bows and braids and tattered knees, the little girl she'll always be
Deep inside my heart.

JENNA BODURTHA

Jenna,
From the adorable little girl you once were - to the beautiful young woman you've become, you are a true reflection of everything that is wonderful in our lives. Every moment spent being your parents has been a joy. Your courage, determination, integrity, and character have always been a source of inspiration for us, and qualities that will take you anywhere in life you wish to go.

"I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance - I hope you dance"

LAUREN DELUCA

As long as I can remember, we've been inseparable. Mom even use to dress us the same. Sometime while we were both attending high school, I stopped looking at you as my little sister, and more as my best friend. Cheering and track only brought us closer. When I left for college, we showed everyone that our bond was stronger than any physical distance between us. As your senior year comes to a close, many things may be different. Please remember that one thing will never change; I will always be here for you.

I love you,
Lon

JOANNA SUROWIEC

Asia,

Time flies by rather quickly and before you know it it's all over. I can remember the days where I held you in my arms and thanked god for the precious gift he sent me. I wanted for you to grow up fast and become the beautiful young woman you are today. Now, I wish you were my little girl again so I could protect you and keep you away from harm. However, it's time for you to grow up and experience life with that bright energetic smile of yours.

Joanna, I am so proud of you. I knew that I could always count on you. Always remember that life will have its easy and tough times, and during these tough times you can always count on me. May all you dream and pray for in the future come true.

Follow your heart and God Bless! We love you a lot,

Where has the time gone?
You grew up much too quickly for us.
When we look in your eyes,
we see precious memories from the past,
and the promise of a wonderful future.
We love and adore you . . .
You'll always be our little girl.
We also want you to know how much we admire you.
You're hard working and self-assured in all you do.
You're fair and caring to others,
and loving to your family.
You're a wonderful daughter . . .
and our dearest friend.
Congratulations!
We love you,
Mom & Dad

We will always be here for you.

We love you
Mom, Dad, Kara and John

NICOLE DOMINICK

Nicole,

You have been the best big sister that anyone could ask for. You have helped me through everything, from homework to heartbreaks. I'm going to miss all the time we spent together, our late night talks, but most of all, my best friend. The room will be empty without you. You have worked so hard all your life, I know you will accomplish your dream.

Love,
Your Little Sister
Kara

JENNIFER PLAMONDON

ELIZABETH STIEG

As you bid the last four years farewell
It should be a time of reflection.
You must review what the years have given you
And more importantly, what you have given it.

You gave yourself to friends who needed you
And left behind many fond memories and smiles.
You attained dreams and goals and are at peace within.
You are in love with life and the world around you.

As you journey on your path make great experiences happen.
If you make a difference in this world life will be good to you.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

AMY RICHARDS

Count on me through thick and thin
A friendship that will never end
When you are weak, I will be strong Helping you to carry on
Call on me, I will be there
Don't be afraid
Please believe me when I say
Count on me

I can see it's hurting you
I can feel the pain
It's hard to see the sunshine through the rain
I know sometimes it seems as if
It's never gonna end
But you'll get through it
Just don't give in cause you can
Count on me

I know sometimes it seems as if
We're standing all alone
But we'll get through it
Cause love won't let us fall

There's a place inside of all of us
Where our faith in love begins
You should reach to find the truth in love
The answers there within

I know that life can make you feel It's much harder than it really is
But we'll get through it
Just don't give in
